Telephone Reassurance Program Application

CONTACT Cape-Atlantic provides telephone reassurance and community support for older adults, people with disabilities and those who are lonely, living alone, or feeling isolated from their community.

We offer a friendly hello and check-in to make sure all is well.

Reassurance calls help relieve feelings of isolation and provide a caring voice and peace of mind to families which may allow people to remain independent in their homes longer.

Volunteer callers also check that the individual is doing well.
